

Prayer calendar for August 2019

1 Pray for the TWR West African Transmitting Station (WATS) team that faithfully broadcasts programmes daily and brings hope to many thousands in a number of regional languages. In addition to their daily work, they have also built and prepared everything for TWR's new Oasis Transmitter.

2 Praise God for the safe travels of Eberhard Haberkom and Gottfried Schiele to Namibia last month. Thank Him for the propagation of the TWR German ministry in southern Africa.

3 Pray for TWR donors in South Africa; that God will continue to bless them so that they can be a blessing.

4 Today Judy Thwane, who serves in the Media Services Department, celebrates her birthday. Pray for good health, a closer walk with the Lord and joy in her service.

5 Praise God for the provision of a partner who sponsors FM airtime for the Knowing God drama series in kiSwahili for the Suba people in northern Tanzania. Close to 130,000 people will have an opportunity to give their lives to Christ and grow in their faith.

6 Continue praying for socio-economic recovery in Mozambique and that the lives of many people tuning in to TWR programmes will give them encouragement and hope.

7 Pray for God's Holy Spirit to change the hearts of leaders involved in conflicts and rebellions throughout West and Central Africa and end the suffering and turmoil destroying communities and families.

8 Pray for young listeners in Africa who are caught up in sexual sin. Pray for God to raise up mentors to disciple them towards a healthy relationship with Jesus Christ.

9 Today is Women's Day in South Africa. Please pray that the TWR Women of Hope programmes will encourage and equip mothers throughout the continent to persevere, even in difficult circumstances. Pray that fathers and children will acknowledge and honour godly women on this day.

10 Pray for strength and good health for the Africa Media Services team as they work to ensure that programmes go on air through our various transmitters.

11 Pray that the many listeners who are unemployed are encouraged by the teaching on our platforms. Pray also for opportunities and employment for them.

12 Many parts of Africa have been experiencing drought for some time now. Please pray for the TWR listeners in those areas, and that God will send rain.

13 As more FM stations across Africa are broadcasting our programmes, please pray that many new listeners to our "Living Word for Africa" (African English version of TTB) will grow in knowledge of God's Word and in their relationship with God.

14 Pray for TWR listeners to understand their need for God's forgiveness and the hope He offers through a relationship with Him once they have accepted Jesus as their personal Saviour, and that they will understand the concepts of grace, forgiveness, and repentance.

15 Pray that the Swaziland broadcasts to East Africa will have a clear signal, and that many listeners in that region will tune in and hear the Word of God.

16 We pray for the people in African countries such as Ethiopia, Eritrea, Mauritania, and many more to have the freedom to choose their religion, express personal beliefs, distribute literature, and listen to Christian radio programmes.

17 Today is the birthday of James Burnett, Technical Project Manager, TWR Africa. Please pray that the Lord will richly bless and keep him and fill his life with His joy, strength and courage as he continues to serve God.

18 Pray that the Church and its leaders in Mozambique will grow in spiritual maturity and Biblical understanding. Pray that our broadcasts will strengthen the faith of people in Mozambique.

19 Pray for TWR Africa staff. May the Lord nurture us into a deeper understanding of servanthood and humility.

20 Pray for the TWR Zimbabwe ministry and thank God that a good channel for sending radios to Zimbabwe has been established.

21 Praise God for TWR's ministry in Angola and that its radio ministry continues to be a powerful platform for taking the gospel to illiterate people in remote and poor areas.

22 Pray for the various ministry areas at TWR-KZN (Building, Finance, IT, Communications, Media and Human Resources). Pray that God will continue to provide resources.

23 Please pray for inspiration needed in the making of new programmes, which will inspire change in the lives of our listeners. May God use TWR's programmes to touch more lives in need of Hope.

24 Pray that TWR listeners in Egypt continue to put their trust in God as the country faces water scarcity due to uneven water distribution, misuse of water resources, inefficient irrigation techniques and growing demands of the population.

25 Bring to the Lord TWR's team in KZN as they diligently seek to reach Zulu people with the Gospel.

26 Pray that many across the world will discover and use TWR360 as an effective ministry tool to break down barriers of language and accessibility so users can download, stream and read abundant Christian media resources.

27 Continue to pray for TWR Women of Hope funding in Uganda, Zimbabwe, Rwanda and Burundi.

28 Shashika Doorasamy, TWR Africa Administrative Assistant in the Human Resources department at Africa Support Services Center is celebrating her birthday today. May the Lord encourage her, as she serves Him attending to the daily needs at the office.

29 Pray for additional funds needed for TWR Zimbabwe to be able to air our programmes on local FM stations.

30 Continue to pray for wisdom for the Swaziland Transmitting Station team as they deal with all technical aspects at the station as well as the maintenance of the building, grounds and transmitting towers.

31 We keep praying that God will speedily grant us an FM license in Ivory Coast, to help us reach out better to the spiritual needs of the local populace who are thirsting for the pure Word of God.
